

FOR MORE
INFORMATION
VISIT:

www.atthelimits.org/cdnatl2021

at the limits

CARDIOLOGY, DIABETES & NEPHROLOGY

A virtual meeting - 1:00 pm - 3:30 pm UK time

on Monday, 12 & Tuesday, 13 April 2021

www.atthelimits.org/cdnatl2021

Chairs

Professor John Cunningham
UCL Medical School
& The Royal Free Hospital, UK

Professor Derek Yellon
University College London,
UK

Professor Stephanie Baldeweg
University College London Hospital,
UK

Dr Richard Horton
The Lancet, London,
UK

Dr Peter Libby
Brigham and Women's Hospital
Boston, Massachusetts, USA

Dr Marc Pfeffer
Brigham and Women's Hospital
Boston, Massachusetts, USA

Professor Mpiko Ntsekhe
Groote Schuur Hospital and
The University of Cape Town, SA

Professor Brian Rayner
Groote Schuur Hospital and
The University of Cape Town, SA

Why Attend?

A host of world-class speakers

Cutting edge content

Passionate discussion and debate

*CDNATL2021 is financially supported by the Pharmaceutical Industry.
Supporters have had no input into the content of the independent scientific sessions or any other aspect of the meeting.*

Programme

Monday, 12 April

The Lancet Lecture: Introduced by Richard Horton
Prevention from an early age - a 'no brainer', but who will listen?
Professor John Deanfield
University College London, UK

What makes us fat? The science of obesity.
Professor Sir Stephen O'Rahilly
University of Cambridge, UK

GLP-1 analogues - have the limits been reached? Their role in obesity.
Professor John Wilding
University of Liverpool, UK

GLP-1 analogues - have the limits been reached? Their role in cardiovascular medicine.
Dr Mansoor Husain
University of Toronto, Canada

A tail of new variants causing hypertension - at the limits of detection, selection and survival
Professor Morris Brown
Queen Mary University of London, UK

Taking atrial fibrillation to new limits!
Professor Corinna Brunckhorst
University of Zurich, Switzerland

Diuretic resistance - new tricks for an old problem.
Professor Christopher Wilcox
Georgetown University, Washington DC, USA

Tuesday, 13 April

The Hatter Award Lecture:
HFpEF: looking back - forging forward.
Dr Marc Pfeffer
Harvard Medical School, Boston, USA

How can we help the damaged kidney to regenerate?
Dr Ben Humphreys
Washington University School of Medicine, St Louis, USA

The rise & fall, & possible resurrection of renal artery denervation for hypertension.
Professor Bernard Gersh
The Mayo Clinic, Minnesota, USA

Kidney, heart and bone: does the crosstalk help or hinder?
Dr Sharon Moe
Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, USA

Have we reached the limits of lipid lowering? What next?
Dr Aruna Pradhan
Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, USA

Clotting at the limits: the NOAC generation!
Dr Sonia Anand
McMaster University, Canada

The Lionel Opie Lecture:
HIV as a cardiovascular risk factor.
Professor Mpiko Ntsekhe
University of Cape Town, South Africa

TO REGISTER AND FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT
www.atthelimits.org/cdnatl2021

Participation

We welcome registrations from medical specialists including cardiologists, diabetologists and nephrologists, endocrinologists, researchers and scientists.

Registration

For more information and to register to view the webcast please visit www.atthelimits.org/cdnatl2021

Meeting Logistics

Supervision of the Scientific program is being provided by the Chairs of the meeting. The programme and Logistics are managed by At the Limits Ltd.

CME Accreditation

CME accreditation is being applied for from the European Board for Accreditation in Cardiology (EBAC)

at the limits
LEADING MEDICAL EDUCATION

At the Limits Ltd., Rotten Row Farm, Hambleden, Henley on Thames, Oxon. RG9 6NB
www.atthelimits.org